A rededication ceremony renaming the North St. Paul post office after late Mayor William "Bill" Sandberg is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Monday.

U.S. Rep. Betty McCollum introduced legislation last June renaming the post office.

Sandberg died in April 2008. He was elected mayor in 1978 and was re-elected seven more terms. At the time of his death, he was the longest-serving mayor in the state.

"Honoring Mayor Sandberg's life and legacy by naming the North St. Paul Post Office after him is just a small tribute to his many accomplishments," McCollum said in a statement.
